THURSDAY MORNING, JULY 22 FUNERAL NOTICE.

The members of the Saint Patrick's Mutual Relief Society are required to meet at their rooms this day at 2 o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral of Thomas Casey, a decease brother. By Order of the Secretary.

THE FIRST WEST VA. VETERANS

Their History.

The First West Virginia veteran vol-unteer infantry has been for some days on the Island, awaiting to be paid off. This will be finished to-day, when the members will leave for their respective homes. The following account of their operations we condense from an official report of Col. Enochs. The present organization is composed of the veterans of the 5th and 9th regiments.

CHRONIC DISEASE. By the form, chronic disease, is generally indension one that has bated for some weeks, and is not attended, generally, with febrile reaction. These cases exhibit but filtle fendency to recover when unaided, and many of them are not amenable to the common modes of mediosion. All chronic diseased, when the are not amenable to the common modes of mediosion. All chronic diseased, when treated this sassion, can always be cured by proper means, but it requires time. And it should be borne in mind by every patient, that in the treatment of chronic diseases, perseverance is absolutely necessary, because it is rarely indeed that quick cures are made by the most skilled physicians. The fact that acute maladles run their source rapidly, and must be promptly these fact lest they invey faital, has been a great stumbling block. In the way of both physicians and patients in the treatment of chronic affections, and more injury has been a great stumbling block. In the way of both physicians and patients in the treatment of chronic affections, and more injury has been greated in the medication for the cases. It is gentle means that succeed best in most cases; the system will not bear undue excitation, consequently all medication should be mild wind persistent; changing the abnormal condition of the system gradually, thus bringing t back to its original healthy standard. THE SYMPTOMS OF CATARRH AS they generally appear are a first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, that they have frequent attacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of temperature. In this condition, the nose may comperature. In this condition, the nose may comperature, and discharge, thin and seried afterward a sleen ing thick and athestye. As the disease comes chronic, the discharges are increased in quality and changed in quality; they are now thick and atheavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The secretions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice is thick and nasal, the eyes are weak; the sense of the smell is lessened or destroyed; dearness frequently takes place. Another common and important symion of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat, in the morning of a thick or slimy mucus, which has fallen down from the bead during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lose no time in arresting it.

requent blushing, attended sometimes, with derangement of milnd, were cured intimediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have intured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, vir. Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Peins in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscula Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The foarful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded—Loss of Memory Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forbodings, Aversion to society, Self-Distrus, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emacdated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough ard symptoms of consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, rendear marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately hope of the shatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature and indulging in a certain secret habit. Indeed, without these, the journey through life becomes a weary pligrimage the prospect hourly darkens to the view; the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with our own.

DISEASE OF IMPRUDENCE.

When the mispuided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discovery, deters him from applying to those who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisseration, until death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that undiscovered country from whence no traveler returns."

It is a metamcholy fact, that thousands fal It is a melancholy fact, that thousands fil victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who by the use of that deadly posson, Mercery, rull the constitution, and make the residue of life wiscopile.
